

ANNUAL REPORT FOR PLACER MINING UNDER THE
CORPS OF ENGINEERS GENERAL PERMIT (88-02P)
SUBMIT BY DECEMBER 31ST

NAME OF PERMITTEE: _____ PHONE: _____
COE FILE NUMBER: B-_____ STATE APMA NUMBER: _____

I did no mining this year (20) and do not intend to work at _____ Creek in the future.

OR

I did no mining this year (20) on _____ Creek. (Thanks, you're done reporting!)

OR

I did mining work this year (20) on _____ Creek that included:

- exploration trenching or drilling, all holes backfilled;
- only reclamation work as described on back of this form;
- mine cuts and processing as described on back of this form.

Of the ground I worked this season, _____ acres have been reclaimed.

Of the ground I worked this season, _____ acres are still unreclaimed.

I have _____ acres of total unreclaimed ground.

I reclaimed my stream diversion Yes No N/A Diversion Length _____ .

In addition to the above information, please include ALL of the following:

- 1) Enclose photographs of this year's work;
- 2) Submit a current drawing of this year's mining work
- 3) Do you plan on working at this site next year?
 Yes. If the planned work still meets the conditions of the GP, you may continue to work under that permit. Please remember to submit your annual report again next year!
 No.

I have completed reclamation at this site: Reclamation was approved by (name) _____ of (land manager) _____.

I plan to complete reclamation next season.

Questions: Need more information about the general permit for placer mining or other permits?
Need to know if you need a permit from Corps? Call Victor Ross in Anchorage at (800) 478-2712 from within Alaska, or at (907) 753-2712, or call Christy Everett in Fairbanks at (907) 474-2166.

Mailing address: Regulatory Branch, Corps of Engineers, P.O. Box 6898, Elmendorf Air Force Base, Alaska 99506-6898 or Fairbanks Regulatory Field Office, 3437 Airport Way, Fairbanks, Alaska 99709-4777.

Note: Non-compliance with reporting requirements may result in permit revocation, directed restoration of affected areas, and/or imposition of civil and criminal penalties.